ART ON THE BLOCK

A MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR

For over two decades, Art on the Block has given us the opportunity to cheers our glasses, refill them, cheers them again, and bid on one-of-a-kind art in support of an institution that is part of the lifeblood of our city. I am thrilled to be back with all of you tonight in appreciation for The AGA. Thank you to everyone who has continued to make this show-stopping event one to remember year after year and to our first-time guests, a sincere welcome.

Many people are necessary for this evening to come together. To the remarkable group of artists, galleries, donors, sponsors, patrons, businesses, volunteers and AGA staff that made tonight possible, we extend our deepest gratitude.

So now, please enjoy some well-deserved revelry in support of this important cause. Allow one of our servers to pour you a cocktail or two. Catch up with old friends over a delicious bite. Then, stake out your piece; the only thing that might be even better than the beautiful new work of art gracing your home (and the knowledge that it was in support of this great cause) is the thrill of the win. Whether your name is last on that bid sheet or not, just remember what Napoleon said: 'Champagne - in victory one deserves it - in defeat one needs it.'

HOW TO PARTICIPATE

GUIDE FOR PROSPECTIVE BUYERS

REGISTRATION

All ticket holders, upon arrival, must register at the registration table to receive a bid number.

STARTING BID

All lots are subject to reserves. A reserve bid is the minimum price or starting bid below which the artwork will not be sold. The reserve is approximately 60% of the Fair Market Value.

FAIR MARKET VALUE

Fair Market Value (FMV) is the highest price, expressed in dollars, that property would bring in an open and unrestricted market, between a willing buyer and a willing seller who are both knowledgeable, informed, and prudent, and who are acting independently of each other.

BIDS EXCEEDING FAIR MARKET VALUE

All bidders who pay at least 25% more than the FMV of an auction item are eligible for a Charitable Tax Receipt for the additional amount.

BIDDING INSTRUCTIONS

To bid on a lot, locate the item and its accompanying bid sheet. Write your bid number (provided at Registration upon arrival) on the bid sheet, the amount you wish to bid and sign your name. Twice during the evening, at 9pm and 10pm, bidding on select silent auction items will close and the successful bid numbers will be listed on the main level of the AGA. Please respect the minimum bid increment.

PAYMENT

Payment may be made by Debit, Visa, MasterCard, AMEX or cheque. Payment must be made in full the day of the sale at the cashier located on the main floor. Payment tables will open at 9.30pm.

REMOVAL OF PROPERTY

Once payment has been made in full, all items may be taken home tonight, or items can be delivered (additional cost) or picked up at the AGA between May 10th and May 14th.

Charitable #119230902 RR 0001. For all purposes relating to this sale, AGA refers to the Art Gallery of Alberta. Goods and Service Tax (GST) of 5% will not be charged on the highest accepted bid on all lots. Although the AGA has taken care in cataloguing the lots offered for sale, all lots are sold "as is" and the AGA, its agents, the auctioneers and the donors do not make any warranties or representations as to the correctness of the catalogue or other descriptions. Prospective bidders are strongly encouraged to inspect the lots before bidding. The AGA reserves the right to withdraw any lot before the moment of sale. Unless otherwise announced by the Art on the Block Chair, all bids are per lot as numbered in the catalogue. The AGA reserves the right to reject any bid. The highest bidder acknowledged by the Art on the Block Chair will be the purchaser. In the event of a dispute between bidders, or in the event of doubt as to the validity of any bid, the Art on the Block Chair will have the final decision either to determine the successful bidder or to re-offer and resell the article in dispute. If the Art on the Block Chair decides that any opening bid is below the value of the lot offered, they may reject the bid and withdraw the lot from the sale. In addition, if the Art on the Block Chair, having acknowledged an opening bid, decides that any advance thereafter is insufficient, the advance may be rejected. At the final indication of sale, title to the offered lot will pass to the highest bidder acknowledged by the Art on the Block Chair, subject to the conditions set forth herein, and such bidder will pay the full purchase price. All property must be removed from the AGA by the purchaser the evening of the sale unless otherwise specified. These conditions apply to all lots offered at the auction.
